SUBMISSION DEADLINE: MAY 6, 2018

HISTORICAL WRITING: BOOK

ELIGIBILITY STANDARDS

This category recognizes English language non-fiction books or e-books.

- Subject matter must relate to Toronto's archaeological, built, cultural, or natural heritage or history.
- The book must have been published between January 1 and December 31, 2017.
- The book must be available to the general public, and may be published in physical or digital form.

The jury will consider the following criteria:

- Advocacy: Does the book pose or answer questions about the importance of heritage and its role in community building, and/or demonstrate a high level of commitment to heritage conservation and promotion?
- Scholarship: Does the book contribute to the field of historical knowledge, draw on a diversity of sources, and provide appropriate acknowledgement of sources?
- Education: Does the book engage the general public and provide a framework for understanding history and/or issues around heritage in Toronto?
- Production Value: Does the book exhibit high quality in design, editing, illustration, and layout that effectively contributes to achieving excellence in advocacy, scholarship, and education as outlined above?
