PUBLIC HISTORY

SUBMISSION DEADLINE: MAY 6, 2018

ELIGIBILITY STANDARDS

This category recognizes English language films, exhibits, websites, mobile applications, and other public history projects.

- Subject matter must relate to Toronto's archaeological, built, cultural, or natural heritage and history.

- The project must be available to the general public.

- The project must have been completed between January 1 and December 31, 2017. Significant updates to a project that was originally completed before January 1, 2017, may be considered at the discretion of the jury.

- The project must not have previously received a Heritage Toronto Award in any category.

The jury will consider the following criteria:

- Advocacy: Does the project pose or answer questions about the importance of heritage and its role in community building, and/or demonstrate a high level of commitment to heritage conservation and promotion?

- Scholarship: Does the project contribute to the field of historical knowledge, draw on a diversity of sources, and provide appropriate acknowledgement of sources?

- Education: Does the project engage the general public and provide a framework for understanding history and/or issues around heritage in Toronto?

- Production Value: Does the project exhibit high quality in design, editing, illustration, and layout that effectively contributes to achieving excellence in advocacy, scholarship, and education as outlined above?
